America Reads			In 1997, President Clinton asked the higher education community to help "build a nation of readers" by establishing America Reads Programs in colleges and universities. In 1994, the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) data showed that 40% of the nation's fourth graders were reading below the basic level. As a result, the major objective of America Reads is to have all children reading well and independently by the end of 3rd grade. Students who do not learn efficient reading skills are blocked from every other subject in their schooling.	driving elderly or reading w/ kids	Carole Flinn	894-9917 x232	Year-long "America Reads" program, 2x/week at 2:30 in Ilion and Frankfort; Also need volunteers to drive elderly. Hospice Care, Inc	4277 Middle Settlement Road, New Hartford, NY	www.hospicecareinc.org	Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc. provides each of its patients with RN visits on both a regular and as needed basis. On each visit, the nurse assesses the patient and family's needs, dialogues and works with the patient's physician, as well as with the hospice medical directors and members of our interdisciplinary team, to manage the patient's medical issues and other symptoms. In addition, there are nurses on-call 24 hours a day who are available to provide guidance, answer questions, and visit, as necessary. The role of HPCI nurses is to educate and guide patients and families throughout the illness, and to provide the information needed to understand and cope, as well as provide care for their loved one. Kirkland Art Center	9 1/2 East Park Row, PO Box 213, Clinton	http://www.kirklandartcenter.org/home.html	The Kirkland Art Center was established more than 40 years ago in the second floor of the town library as a meeting place. From the beginning there were classes, exhibitions, films, concerts and lectures. The KAC is now an active, regional, multi-arts center, located in an old church, barn and connecting addition, on the village green. The nature of the activities and mission has stayed steadfast, but with the support of the community, members, volunteers, funding sources and guidance from the NYSCA, our programming has broadened. Demonstrating quality, diversity and multi-cultural programming, both at our facility and off-site, the KAC has become a major cultural force in central New York and through cooperation with other cultural institutions has developed a network of services and opportunities for artists and art lovers of all disciplines.
